Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The wedding of Debra Lou Ganje and George Louis Robertson will take place Saturday, May 23, 1981, in Aberdeen, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The regulations of the Federal Communications Commission have no prohibition to such a marital merger; and,

WHEREAS, The by-laws of the Realty Board do not dis-allow such a conjugal construction; and,

WHEREAS, The mandates of the Sheriff's Association mention no remonstrance to this matrimonial mixture; and,

WHEREAS, The traditions of all the political animals in South Dakota voice no objection to the connubial co-habitation of two truly unique characters; and,

WHEREAS, The mores of the Department of Education and Cultural Affairs do not require the accreditation or certification of this spousal school; and,

WHEREAS, I, personally, was, at first, undecided whether to issue an Executive Wedding Proclamation to both--or a Proclamation of Valor to each; and,

WHEREAS, I have, at long last, and after thoughtful deliberation, arrived at the conclusion that this marriage does not mean that I am losing either George or Debra, but gaining a couple which is greater even than the sum of its talented partners:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 23, 1981, as

GEORGE AND DEBRA ROBERTSON DAY

In South Dakota, and I thank George and Debra for always being my friends.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One
